On Monday, April 8, 2019, at 8:08 pm, a San Bruno Police Officer contacted the occupant of a vehicle, later identified as 21-year-old Los Angeles resident Dajon Marshall, that was parked in the JC Penney's parking lot at 1122 El Camino Real in San Bruno. An ensuing investigation revealed that a warrant had been issued for Marshall's arrest. Furthermore, he was found to be in possession of approximately $1,200 worth of stolen merchandise from a Victoria's Secret Store.

Following his subsequent arrest, Marshall forcefully kicked the door of a patrol vehicle with both of his legs, striking a police officer, causing him to lose his balance. Marshall exited the patrol vehicle in handcuffs in an attempt to escape. Officers were able to contain Marshall, and following a brief struggle, he was taken into custody once again.

Marshall was booked into the San Mateo County Jail pursuant to the arrest warrant and for charges related to the possession of stolen property, escape by force, battery on a police officer, and resisting arrest.
